Nesharianna “Nesha” Toney practices primarily in the area of workers’ compensation defense. Nesha is a native of Tylertown, Mississippi. She received her Bachelor’s degree and J.D. from the University of Mississippi.

During law school, Nesha interned for the Georgia Law Center for the Homeless and the Fulton County District Attorney’s Office. She also volunteered her time with the Georgia Law Center for the Homeless, Mississippi Taxpayers Assistance Project, and the MacArthur Justice Center.

Nesha began her legal career as a Plaintiff’s attorney practicing in the areas of personal injury, including automobile, motorcycle and truck accident cases, premises liability cases, and dog bite cases.

Nesha currently lives in Atlanta, Georgia. Nesha enjoys spending time with family and friends and cheering on the Ole Miss Rebels.
